Courses

106 Anabaptist History and Theology – Marcus Yoder

This course will give the student a substantial introduction to the 16th century events and issues that shaped Anabaptism, along with practical applications for the 21st century.

New! Women of Faith – Norita Yoder

This course is a study of some women of faith recorded in Scripture and history.

702 Effective Leadership – Paul Emerson

This course, geared particularly for church leaders and potential leaders, will include the dynamics of servant leadership and working with people. Issues of motivation and accountability will be considered in the light of the Biblical teachings.

801 Sermon on the Mount – Steve Byler

As the longest discourse of the Lord Jesus, the Sermon on the Mount has taken on a great deal of significance. In this course we will do an introductory study of the Kingdom of Heaven as discussed especially in the book of Matthew, and discuss how the Sermon on the Mount relates to this Kingdom. We will begin the study with an overview of the main themes before doing a verse-by-verse study. Our resources will include a wide range of commentary done by writers from the scope of Christian history including contemporary scholars.

Choir – TBA

This course will consist of a preparation for a quality program of choral music in several churches. There will be homework and practice time required outside of class. Choir members are required to stay for the tour following the three week term. Limited number of participants. For program dress, see Entrance requirements.
